VÅR UNIKE EVNE TIL Å KOMBINERE...

A woman with short blonde hair, wearing a green cardigan over a white top, is standing at a counter in a florist shop. She is holding a smartphone and using it to pay for a bouquet of flowers. The florist, a woman with long dark hair wearing a blue sweater, is holding a payment terminal. The counter is cluttered with various flowers, including purple and pink blooms, and some are wrapped in brown paper. In the background, there are shelves filled with more flowers and a window showing greenery outside.

The image shows the interior of a modern car. A man is in the driver's seat, and a woman is in the passenger seat. They are both looking at a large, wide touchscreen display in the center console. The display shows a user interface with various icons and a large image of a trash bin. The car has a sunroof and a rearview mirror. The overall atmosphere is clean and futuristic.
