

Kystverket- The Coastal Agency

Support tool for the pilotage service

Through this innovation partnership, the Norwegian Coastal Administration wants to develop a supporting tool for the pilotage service that compensate for a lack of reliability, and which can notify the pilotage of interference.

The main purpose of the project is to increase maritime safety by developing a portable support tool adapted to the needs of the Norwegian Coastal Administration's pilotage service.

Innovation partnership

