

FFI Norwegian Defence
Research Establishment

Self-declaration of Ethical Guidelines

Self-declaration of Ethical Guidelines

As Contractor to the Ministry of Defence (MOD) or its subordinate agencies it is hereby conscientiously declared that:

1. The business shall respect the standards of conduct set forth in the ethical guidelines that are applicable to business relationship between suppliers and employees in the MOD with subordinate agencies. The ethical values which concern business practise between contractors and employees in MOD with subordinate agencies can be found at www.lovddata.no as attachment to the Procurement regulations for the defence sector (ARF).
2. That contact with MOD and subordinate agencies shall be exclusively professional and be based on good business practice. This means for instance, that it is not permitted to offer any gift, benefit or advantage to any employee or anyone else who is carrying out work for the MOD or underlying agencies, if the gift, benefit or advantage may be liable to affect their service duties. This rule applies regardless of whether the gift, benefit or advantage is offered directly, or through an intermediary.
3. In connection with submission of an offer, it has been stated with the offer whether
 - a) the business or others associated with the business, has contributed in the development of specifications for this acquisition,
 - b) the business has employed, or associated itself with someone, who in the last two years counting from the offer due date, has been employed at MOD or subordinate agencies,
 - c) the business is bankrupt, undergoing debt settlement or liquidation, has been suspended, or if the business is in a similar process under national laws and regulations,
 - d) the business is subject to proceedings for bankruptcy, has requested the opening of a debt settlement or forced liquidation or other similar process under national laws and regulations,
 - e) the business, employees or others associated with the business, has been convicted by a final judgement of any offence concerning its professional conduct, such as breach of existing national and international legislation on the export of defense and security materials,
 - f) the business, employees or others associated with the business, has been convicted by a final judgement of offence against criminal acts of participation in a criminal organisation, corruption, fraud, money laundering, terrorist activity or financing of terrorist activity,
 - g) the business, employees or associated with the business, in their profession has been guilty of grave professional misconduct of professional and ethical requirements in the industry concerned, such as breach of obligations regarding security of information or security of supply during a previous contract.
4. Conduct contrary to paragraph 2, or grossly misleading or false information or failure to provide information in accordance with paragraph 3, may result in refusal to provide tenders to the MOD and subordinate agencies.

Place/date:

Signed by Director of Company: